When this petition came up for hearing, there is no representation for the petitioner. I note that this petition is filed as early as on 06/07/2004 and lies in limbo with the order "post when moved again" on 30/09/2004. The prayer is to quash a prosecution initiated under the provisions of the Kerala Abkari Act. I find absolutely no merit in the prayer. The petitioner has to move the court before which the case is pending for discharge, if he is entitled to. This criminal miscellaneous case is in these circumstances dismissed.
